TAKE 5 WEDNESDAY

Hi

Here is your weekly dose of "TAKE 5 Wednesday", a list of what I'm enjoying, pondering and working on.

How financially viable is your rental property?

Many cities across Canada have seen a surge in housing prices, and investing in a rental property has become an area of interest for a lot of people. If you're thinking about becoming a landlord, you need to consider not only the purchase price and mortgage repayment costs of your property, but other financial issues as well. Click here to assess whether this type of investment is likely to work well for you.

Changing entrepreneurs' lives

The Digital Media Zone (DMZ) is Ryerson University's business incubator for early-stage technology startups. It helps startups build great businesses by connecting them with customers, capital, experts and a community of entrepreneurs and influencers. Click here to learn about some of the businesses that DMZ has helped, and to find out whether your business could be next.

10 must-know facts about recessions

Recessions are part of the warp and woof of a dynamic economy. Any number of things can cause a recession, but if you're well prepared there will be plenty of opportunities when the economy recovers. Here are 10 must-know facts about recessions. There is an old economists' joke that a recession is when someone else loses their job, and a depression is when you lose your job. (Very few economists have transitioned to stand-up comedy!)

What happens to your eyes when you stare at screens all day

Looking at screens for too long can cause eyestrain, and we all seem to be spending more time than ever staring at screens. But can we blame them for all of our vision problems? This article shares some myths and facts about what can affect your vision and how to take care of your eyes all the time, not just when you're in front of a screen.

Quote I'm pondering

“It’s only after you’ve stepped outside your comfort zone that you begin to change, grow, and transform.”

– Roy T. Bennett

Thanks for TAKING 5!
